6. (Internal Use Only - LLM) LIAISON Met with Frank Slatinshek, Chief Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, and in the absence of Marian Czarnecki, spoke with Jack Brady, House International Relations Committee staff, to review the request from Mike Van Dusen, Special Subcommittee on Investigations, House International Relations Committee staff, on behalf of Chairman Lee Hamilton (D., Ind.) for information on the death of Orlando Letelier. Both agreed that we should not be involved in reporting on a domestic situation and from Slatinshek that congressional guidelines provide oversight of Agency activities to the Special Subcommittee.

7. (Internal Use Only - LLM) LEGISLATION At the request of Frank Slatinshek, Chief Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, met with Carl Perrin, on the staff of Representative John Murphy to provide him our language of the amendment and the comment on it concerning S. 3664. I explained it was my understanding that Mr. Murphy was in agreement with the position and would support similar language in a similar bill if the subject became active during the 95th Congress.

8. (Internal Use Only - LLM) LIAISON John Matheney, White House staff, called to confirm the holding in the Marchetti case that publication does not place classified information in the public domain. I read him the pertinent confirming excerpts from the Marchetti and Knoff cases which OGC, provided. We also discussed that this rule does not appear to be followed in Freedom of Information Act cases when publication is made in a congressional committee document.

9. (Internal Use Only - LLM) LIAISON Spoke with Larry Callahan, Legislative Affairs, Department of Justice, concerning the proposed briefing of the Special Subcommittee on Investigations, House International Relations Committee, concerning the death of Orlando Letelier. Callahan said that Justice was not going to appear but that the Department of State was and I explained that our general position was that whatever information we had on the case should be reported to Justice and that we have no authority to get involved in the investigation of a domestic crime.

10. (Unclassified - KSN) LIAISON Bill Miller, Staff Director, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, met with Jim Taylor, Comptroller.

9. (Unclassified - LLM) LIAISON Called Frank Slatinshek Chief Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, about the status of S. 3664. It was his understanding that further action on the bill had stopped but he said he would reconfirm in light of our information that the bill was scheduled for mark-up and possible floor action this weekend.

Later, Slatinshek called confirming that the bill is dead for this year but that the language of our amendment is acceptable and would be included in any new bill if it is considered in the next Congress.

10. (Unclassified - LLM) LIAISON Called Tom Sullivan, Minority staff, Subcommittee on Government Information & Individual Rights, House Government Operations Committee, at home late in the evening to discuss the outstanding request from Representative Paul McCloskey (R., Calif.).

11. (Unclassified - DFM) LIAISON Talked to Vern Jennings, INR/State Department, who gave me State's clearance to release the Clark Report to the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, but advised that he thought I should check with the NSC.

12. (Unclassified - DFM) LEGISLATION Called the Senate Committee on Armed Services and was told that the medical malpractice bill, S. 1395, had been reported from the Committee, but it had not yet been scheduled for floor action.

13. (Unclassified - DFM) LIAISON Received a call from Larry Wasem, in the office of Representative Steve Symms (R., Idaho). Wasem said the Congressman had heard reports that the Japanese were preparing to return the MIG 25 to the Soviets and Wasem wondered if we could shed any light on this. I told him I would check and get back to him.

6. (Internal Use Only - LLM) LIAISON Called Bob Turner, Legislative Assistant to Senator Robert Griffin (R., Mich.), concerning the somewhat confused situation on staff members attending the briefing by the Director before the Subcommittee on Arms Control, International Organizations and Security Agreements, Senate Foreign Relations Committee. Turner was completely sympathetic with our problems and said that Senator Griffin is supportive of efforts to limit proliferation of sensitive information and offered to be of help in the future if the need arises.

7. (Unclassified - LLM) LIAISON Representative Paul McCloskey (R., Calif.) called requesting assistance on a pending matter.

8. (Internal Use Only - LLM) LIAISON Sam Hoskinson, NSC staff, called to review our proposed handling of the request for information on Panama generated by Representative Leonor Sullivan (D., Mo.). I reviewed the situation in detail and the advice we had received that we provide our written response to Chairman Melvin Price, House Armed Services Committee, who would make it available to Mrs. Sullivan since Chairman Price had already written the Agency on her behalf. Hoskinson had no problem with this approach but requested we hold up until he could close the loop on the reply between the White House to Mrs. Sullivan's latest letter.

8. (Internal Use Only - PLC) LIAISON Received a call from Dick D'Amato, Legislative Assistant to Representative James Jeffords (R., Vt. A.L.), requesting a copy each of the Agency's reports on climatology and world food production. D'Amato said he had copies of the publications which he had gotten from our office but had given them to an Indonesian who is a member of the Indonesian Center for Statistical Studies who is interested in world food production. The request was given to

10. (Internal Use Only - LLM) LIAISON Fred Ruth, Legislative Assistant to Senator Dewey Bartlett (R., Okla.), called on the Senator's continued interest in KGB activities in the United States. I told Ruth that he should be in contact with the FBI, which he was, and I referred him to the book, KGB, The Secret Work of Soviet Secret Agents, by John Barron.

11. (Internal Use Only - LLM) LIAISON Called Larry Smith, Senate Armed Services Committee staff, and assured him that our Soviet civil defense study was not yet completed and we were keeping his interests in mind. In the meantime, I said we were gathering some other material for him.

12. (Unclassified - LLM) LEGISLATION Frank Slatinshek, Chief Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, called and said that both Chairmen Melvin Price (D., Ill.) and Lucien Nedzi (D., Mich.) were sympathetic to our problems with S. 3664 and would support our position and amendment with Chairman John Murphy (R., N.Y.).

13. (Internal Use Only - LLM) LIAISON Called Sam Hoskinson, NSC Staff, on the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence request for OAG guidelines and he agreed that providing the procedures as approved was consistent with the proposed action of the Agency in providing its covert action regulations.

I also discussed with Hoskinson the problems we were encountering in answering Representative Leonor Sullivan's (D., Mo.) request concerning [REDACTED] I explained our intentions to Hoskinson.

14. (Unclassified - JK) LIAISON Called Ralph Preston, House Appropriations Defense Subcommittee staff, to request a copy of GAO's opinion regarding legality of IC Staff expenditures under a separate appropriation. Preston informed me that we would have to wait until Charles Snodgrass, House Appropriations Defense Subcommittee staff, returned to obtain a copy.

2. (Internal Use Only - LLM) BRIEFING Called Bill Ashworth, Subcommittee on Arms Control, International Organizations and Security Agreements staff, Senate Foreign Relations Committee, to clarify the Committee's position on other witnesses sitting in during the Director's testimony before the Subcommittee tomorrow and was told they were leaving the matter entirely up to the Director but this should not be taken as Committee endorsement of the proposition.

STAT 3. (Internal Use Only - LLM) LIAISON In the company of [redacted] met with Frank Slatinshek, Chief Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, to explain the impediments to the Agency's mission which would be created by the enactment of S. 3664 or H.R. 15481 (amending the reporting requirements of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 and to prohibit foreign bribes.) Remedial language for an amendment was also discussed. Slatinshek fully understands that such an amendment would not necessarily make the bill acceptable to the Administration. Slatinshek will discuss this matter with Chairman Lucien Nedzi (D., Mich.).

4. (Unclassified - LLM) LIAISON Tom Sullivan, in the office of Representative Sam Steiger (R., Ariz.), called in connection with a report by the Subcommittee on Government Information & Individual Rights, House Government Operations Committee, which will be issued shortly.

5. (Internal Use Only - LLM) LIAISON Returned the call of Alan Romberg, NSC staff, who wants to sit in on the Director's briefing of the Subcommittee on Arms Control, International Organizations and Security Agreements, Senate Foreign Relations Committee, and explained the problems this may generate. He agreed with our position but requested a copy of the prepared statement and an opportunity to review the transcript. I made no commitment on the transcript.

13. (Internal Use Only - PLC) LIAISON Called Clark McFadden, Counsel, Senate Armed Services Committee, and gave him a rundown of the article on the Soviet Backfire in Aviation Week and the Director's reaction. McFadden declined the offer of a briefing on the subject. He did request a briefing on the MIG 25 for himself and other Committee staff members as soon as the Agency has any information to provide.

14. (Internal Use Only - PLC) LEGISLATION Met with Bill Miller, Staff Director, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, and discussed the Committee's consideration of H.R. 13615, to amend CIARDS. He hopes to take it up at their meeting this Wednesday and assured Committee action this week. He will poll the Members if a quorum cannot be raised Wednesday. He asked for a statement from the Director on the bill explaining its provisions.

✓ 15. (Unclassified - PLC) LIAISON I visited Bill Hogan, Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, at Bethesda Naval Hospital where he is a patient. During the visit, he said he had a call that the medical malpractice legislation which covers Agency doctors had been reported out by the Senate Armed Services Committee and the Senate would act on it this week. The bill can be brought directly on the House floor for a vote and hopefully will pass this session.

4. (Confidential - GLC) LIAISON Called Mike Madigan, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, and asked him if he would check and see if Senator Howard Baker (R., Tenn.) would speak to the LA Division COS Seminar on 5 October from 9:15 to 10:15. Madigan said he would check and be back in touch.

5. (Unclassified - JMD) LIAISON [REDACTED] OTR, called and asked if we could get a member of Congress to speak to the Senior Seminar, on the Hill, on 13 October from 2:00 to 3:00 p.m. He said they would also like to have a committee staff person speak from 3:00 to 4:00 p.m. He said they would prefer to have someone who deals with international affairs. I told him I would have someone check on this and be back in touch.

6. (Confidential - GLC) LIAISON Called Frank Slatinshek, House Armed Services Committee staff, and told him that the IC Staff people had tracked down the item on proposed legislation which Col. Steve Harrick, DOD, had given him and which Slatinshek had passed on to me. I told Slatinshek the IC Staff doesn't think there is any need for this legislation and in any event agreed that it should be submitted to the DCI. Slatinshek said they would ignore it. I said I had advised Col. Harrick that this should have come through the IC Staff and the Director.
